Further announcement will be made at a later date.

Eastern Man is Robbed and Slain

Radio broadcast to all police officers this week warned the Torrance department to watch for a green Chevrolet sedan, 1928 model, registered to Harold O. Conner of Brooklyn, New York. Conner was found murdered near Portland, Oregon, his car, money and travelers' checks missing. The car bore a New York license, No. 922171. It is believed that the persons wanted for the crime may attempt to cash the travelers' checks at stores or small town banks.

Brilliant Electrical Parade To Feature Studio Beauties

Hollywood's prettiest girls will be used as "trimmings" for the 30 gorgeous floats and decorated vehicles, which will fill Olympic Stadium in Los Angeles with color and light, when the great Motion Picture Electrical Parade and Sport Pageant is held Saturday night. Here are four charmers, showing how they will be placed around a great luminous star on one of the iridescent floats.
